

We are pleased to announce that the Law Offices of Rene A. Sotorrio, P.A. has established a strategic and professional alliance with two criminal law firms in Spain and Mexico. In the first case, it is the law firm Constitución 23 (www.constitucion23.es), which has offices in Madrid, Seville and Alicante, and, in the second, the law firm Hernandez Romo & Ochoa (www.hroabogados.com) whose main office is in the Mexico City). In both cases, these are very solid and prestigious law firms, not only in Madrid, Seville or Mexico but throughout Spain and Mexico, whose main partners are, in addition to prestigious professionals with extensive and successful careers, good friends of the United States and connoisseurs of its social and economic reality.

As a result of this alliance, The Law Offices of Rene A. Sotorrio, P.A. will henceforth act as a correspondent firm of Constitución 23 Hernandez Romo & Ochoa in the United States, and these firms will act, respectively, as correspondent firms of the Law Offices of Rene A. Sotorrio in Spain and Mexico.

With this we intend to provide our current and potential clients (Mexicans, Americans and Spaniards) with a service that transcends the borders of our current and respective areas of action and to assist them in all doubts or questions that arise in terms of crime prevention and/or money laundering programs, criminal proceedings, cross-border judicial cooperation and extradition procedures, etc.
